

TRISCEND^{NP} Partners with Executive Benefits Group, LLC to Provide Proprietary Individual Disability Insurance to Supplement Group Long-Term Disability Coverage for Protection of Retirement Assets

Dallas, Texas – March 13, 2019 - TRISCEND^{NP}, LLC, a provider of talent management and capital optimization solutions for non-profit organizations announced its partnership with Executive Benefits Group, Inc. (EBG), experts in corporate supplemental disability income protection programs. The partnership provides for TRISCEND^{NP} to offer its clients EBG’s proprietary solution for protecting supplemental executive benefit plans and retirement savings with Individual Disability Insurance (IDI) in a supplement to Group Long-Term Disability (GLTD) coverage.

“We are excited about our new association with Dan Aceti, founder of EBG, and his team. Dan has over 30 years of providing awareness of the numerous risks to executive income and has an impressive record of offering solutions and products to mitigate and even eliminate those risks,” said Robert Gutherman, Co-Founder and Principal of TRISCEND^{NP}.

“IDI not only ensures our executive clients’ income and retirement savings are protected in the event of an injury or illness, but it’s also another tool our non-profit clients can utilize to attract and retain key employees for their organization,” said Dale Edwards, Co-Founder and Principal of TRISCEND^{NP}.

“TRISCEND^{NP} is an ideal partner for EBG. TRISCEND^{NP}’s expertise in the non-profit sector and their innovative approach to providing executive benefits complement our business model of customizing solutions to ensure the client’s goals and objectives are met,” said Dan Aceti, Founder of EBG.
